EMPLOYES SUSTAIN THE FIRM.

Ask That Union Label Be Restored to Wellman-Dwire.

At a meeting of the union employes of the Wellman-Dwire Tobacco Company, resolution was adopted asking the Advisor Board of the National Tobacco Workers firm.

The union employes of the firm in their resolution say that Mrs. McFarland was suspended one day as a matter of disciline, and on the following day appeared and abused Superintendent J. N. Wellman. and abused superintendent J. N. Weilman whereupon he discharged her. Finding this to be the truth, after a full twestikation they requested the board to reconsider its action and restore the label to the firm.

Mrs. Barnes and Mrs. Nelson have given up the quarters formerly ecoupied by them. After their release by Chief Desmond Friday they went back to their homes, pucked up their effects and departed. Their present whereabouts is known to Chief Desmond, but he will not reveal the address.

Board of the National Tobacco Workers' Union to restore to the firm the union label, which was ordered to be withdrawn on last Thursday night on account of the discharge of Mrs. McFarland, whom the firm declined to reinstate.

Mrs. McFarland was an the committee to arrange the restoration of a certain wage scale. She was discharged, it was alleged, on account of her position in the union. The local Advisory Board tried to adjust the matter without any results. As it did not wish to call a strike it withdrew the union label from the product of the firm.

that she has volunteered to considered as satisfactors are can in apprehending Nelson, for whom she now manifests apparently as much repugnance as she formerly held affection. She declared yesterday that she was glad, now that her husband's true character was exposed, that the exposure had come so early in their matrimonial cureer.

Chief Desmond said yesterday that he is almost positive that Barnes and Nelson are really brothers, instead of cousins. Eyidence is being rapidly developed, in an examination of the correspondence of the two
